

RICHMONDERS TO SEE GREAT GAME

Crowd of Rooters to Go From Here to Charlottesville on Saturday.

FOOT-BALL HERE TO-DAY

Richmond College Spiders to Play Washington and Lee. Georgetown-North Carolina.

There seems to be no doubt that an excursion will be run from Richmond Saturday morning to Charlottesville to carry the rooters from here who wish to see the Virginia Polytechnic Institute game at that place. An excursion will be run provided there are two hundred people in Richmond who will agree to purchase tickets. Two papers have been circulated, and from the number of signatures it would seem that even more than the required number to secure the special train are anxious to witness the great contest—the greatest of the gridiron this season.

Virginia has strengthened its team considerably. A new addition to the eleven is a man from New York, who will, in a measure, balance with the mighty Carpenter. The latter is the strength of the Virginia Polytechnic boys, and will do some effective work in the game Saturday, unless he is injured in some manner early in the exhibition.

FOOT-BALL TO-DAY.

Washington and Lee Team to Meet Richmond College Eleven.

Washington and Lee College, at Lexington, will send a strong eleven here to-day to tussle with the Richmond College team at Broad Street Park. The game is called for 3:30 o'clock and promises to be exciting from the start. There is considerable interest attached to the exhibition in this city. The Spiders have strengthened considerably within the past month, and in to-day's game will show their speed. Washington and Lee is said to have a good lot of players for this year. They will arrive this morning.

The Spiders will line up like this: Walter, center; McCall, left guard; Miller, right guard; Wright, right end; Elmore, left end; Gooch, right half back; Throckmorton, left half back; S. Jones, full back.

The game will be called at 4 o'clock.

GAME HERE SATURDAY.

Betting Two to One in Favor of North Carolina Team.

Wagers are being placed at two to one that Georgetown will meet defeat at the hands of the North Carolina team next Saturday. North Carolina will be some what strengthened in the game, and will have a more formidable line than it had against the Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Both teams will arrive in Richmond Friday night, and will be in the city Saturday morning preparatory for the great struggle.

COPLIN WINS.

Gets Decision Over Kid Paccina at Ferndale Park.

Kid Coplin won the decision over Kid Paccina at Ferndale Park, Saturday night. The two boxers were in fine trim and gave the spectators an excellent exhibition of manly art. Coplin's victory was about as expected, as he is a more powerful fighter than Paccina. The fight was a close one, and the referee gave the decision to Coplin by a unanimous vote of the judges.

PEACE IN SIGHT IN WESTERN TURF WAR

CINCINNATI, O., October 31.—A report was in circulation here to-day to the effect that Captain Brown, the Pittsburg cock, and a member of the board of directors of the American Turf Association, had withdrawn his support from that body and that the American Turf Association is left without a majority on the board. The report was a surprise to many, as it was believed that the American Turf Association was a combination of the two warring clubs. It was also said that Captain Brown had withdrawn his support from the American Turf Association, and that he had joined the Western Jockey Club.

NAVY FOOT-BALL TEAM HAS MANY CRIPPLES

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ANNAPOLIS, MD., Oct. 31.—Some of the Navy foot-ball crimples were on the field in uniform this afternoon, but others came out, but did not put on football clothes.

Halfback Bernard went in the scrimmage, and Spencer was in foot-ball togs, but limped badly, and did not get in the

DUNLOP PATENT FLOUR

Absolute cleanliness is the law in the manufacture of "Dunlop Patent Flour." The human hand does not come in contact with either the wheat or flour.

The wheat is unloaded by power shovels, and ground by automatic machinery. The flour sacks are sewed by machinery.

No other flour just as good. Manufactured by the Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

Capacity, 2,500 bbls. daily.

DUNLOP MILLS RICHMOND, VA.

The Motto:

Times-Dispatch Want Ads. Pay Best

Tells the whole story. Except the reason. The reason is found in the following:

The Times-Dispatch Want Ads. have the largest morning circulation in three States—larger than any two morning papers.

The Times-Dispatch is the representative newspaper of Virginia.

The Times-Dispatch goes first in the homes and is longest in the homes.

The Times-Dispatch has become a necessity to every member of the family who can read, and Times-Dispatch Want Ads. voice their wants.

This service to you for one cent a word. 'Phone 549 for the Want Ad. man.

game. Captain Howard also did not get in the scrimmage, as his shoulder is not yet strong.

Douglash, Doherty and Welch were on the side lines. Charles Gould, ex-captain and end of Yale, was an addition to the coaching staff this afternoon. No score was made in twenty minutes of fierce work against the scrub, the first team being drilled mainly on defensive tactics.

CORNELL TEAM GOES FROM BAD TO WORSE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 31.—The Cornell "Varsity" fell into a slump to-day. First Coach Warner gave the players a talk and told them what he had seen at the Columbia-Princeton game Saturday, saying that Cornell would have to improve a lot before they could defeat Columbia, to say nothing of Princeton.

Next Saturday's game with Swarthmore is worrying Cornell. She fears a defeat. The prospects of victory were lessened to-day by the absence of Fullback Hallway, who went to the infirmary sick. He is undoubtedly the strongest man in the backfield.

In a scrimmage to-day with the freshmen the "Varsity" fared badly, being pushed over their goal line by the youngsters.

WINTER SCHEDULE.

Mormon Elders Cannot Hold Street Services.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, Va., October 31.—The winter schedule of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company went into effect to-day. The change of any special importance in the schedule is that the Norfolk steamer for Tappahannock leaves Norfolk hereafter at 8 o'clock Sunday morning instead of Saturday afternoon. The schedule for this city, which has been working so satisfactorily, was not changed.

Two Mormon preachers, claiming to be from Utah, were here yesterday and made application to Acting Mayor W. S. Embrey for permission to hold services near the street. Mr. Embrey declined to grant the request.

Mr. Henry C. Scott, formerly of this city, has been elected president of the National Light and Improvement Company, of St. Louis, Mo., which owns several gas, electric light and street railway companies and has a paid up capital stock of $1,000,000.

Over a few nights ago destroyed the barn of Mr. Charles Bowie, in Caroline county, entailing a loss of about $1,000, with partial insurance.

FOOTBALL GAME PROBABLY OFF

Georgetown Refuses to Pay Virginia's Expenses, and Latter Stand Pat.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., October 31.—It is probable there will be no foot-ball game between the University of Virginia and the Georgetown team this year. The trouble is due to a question of the payment of the expenses of the Virginians to and from this city and their hotel tax while here. An agreement reached between the athletic committees of the two institutions last spring provided that the receipts of the game played here should be divided equally, and that the expenses of the Virginians should be paid out of Georgetown's share. The new athletic committee of Georgetown protest that this is unfair, and has written a letter to the University of Virginia committee protesting against the former arrangement and suggesting that the expenses of the visiting team be shared equally by the two. This reply has not been answered by Charlottesville.

It is understood, however, that Virginia is inflexibly opposed to any plan in which the University of Virginia should be asked to pay the expenses of the visiting team when it comes here to play November 11th.

DEAD CASHIERS BOOKS CORRECT TO A PENNY

Block, Who Killed Himself, Said to Have Known Eckstein Notes Would Be Paid.

BUFFALO, N. Y., October 31.—Nathan Eckstein, of Seattle, Wash., has paid to Vice-President G. F. Zeller in the Citizens National Bank a considerable sum of money, presumed to be between $50,000 and $60,000. The sum was just enough to take up the paper of Mr. Eckstein's brother, Charles, and Adolf, of the Whitney-Eckstein Seed Company, of Buffalo, held by the bank. The paper was transferred to Nathan Eckstein.

Thus was settled without the loss of a dollar to the bank the indebtedness believed to have caused the young cashier, Henry J. Block, to blow out his brains on Friday night. The affair is now regarded as a closed incident, so far as the bank is concerned.

The books of the young cashier, which were examined to-day, were found to be correct to a penny. Why Mr. Block should have considered the Eckstein matter so serious a disability to him as to drive him to suicide is a mystery to his friends. He knew last Friday, according to Lyman M. Baker, attorney for the Ecksteins, that the money to take up the paper would be paid over to the bank to-day.

ROSEMARY LIBRARY.

Will Be Conducted Temporarily in Building on Eighth Street.

The friends and patrons of the Rosemary Library will be glad to know that the library is about to be reopened after having been closed since Mr. Thomas at the corner of Fourth and Franklin Streets, which has been the home of the library for some time past, was torn down during the summer to make room for a more modern structure. The new home had been promised for the first of October, but owing to unavoidable delay on the part of the builders, it will not be ready for occupancy until the first of January.

In the meantime, through the courtesy of the School Board, the managers of the library have been tendered the use of the house, No. 41 North Eighth Street, and will take possession and open the library temporarily at that place to-day.

WOES OF LIZZIE

Past Believing

Crutchfield Sent Gorgeously Decorated Transgressor Back to Police Court Cage.

RICHARD'S FRIEND FIXED HIM

Young White Man Charged With Stealing Two Typewriters.

Other Cases.

Fastidiously wrapped from the waist down in one of these shirred things commonly called skirts, bedecked upward in a French creation of lavender and chiffon and with her topknot adorned with a coil of wire, around which was spun a few yards of various shades of ribbon and touched here and there with heads of birds, Lizzie Brown came slowly down the aisle until she was in the presence of the One John. The time was yesterday morning, the scene, the usual one, in Police Court. The room was decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being white, black and yellow. Blue intermingled here and there, lending a most impressive touch to the decorations.

Lizzie said that a man named John asked her to change a quarter. She—Lizzie is always obliging—handed John two dimes and a nickel. John immediately hid himself hence. Into the shadows of a hall he departed, and Lizzie started in when Richard's friend, butted in and started his tongue to wagging. It was all over. There was one Haze McKee, a negro from the North, who came to the city in search of employment. Haze was in his bed trying to sleep, when in rushed three negroes. One of them, whom Haze recognized as Morris, grabbed his coat and started off. After a chase he got his coat, but lost his shoes in the shuffle. Jim Greene and Littleton Smith were also charged along with Morris, and Greene told the story that stuck Morris. But the case went over until Thursday, in order to allow the officers some time to work the case.

Louis Cohen, a small boy, was in court with his father, who said he was incorrigible. The father wanted him, and the court said "git."

William Kelley was so suspicious that he got ninety days by the villa where the maid waters roll on to the mighty James.

Paul Mock, a young white man, who is charged with misappropriating two Remington typewriters, will tell about it on the 8th. The question of jurisdiction arose, and the case may be tried in Hall's court. It appeared, but Mock, while in South Boston, Va., rented two typewriters from the company. He left Virginia and went to Washington, where it is alleged that he attempted to dispose of the machines. Detective Tomlinson went after him.

Alfred Fultz tried to wiggle out of the charge of smacking Martha Tucker, but he was nabbed at the last turn. He had well-nigh gotten out of the case, and in another minute would have been free. But there was one word, and Crutchfield jumped on it with elasticity. The woman went after him. "Can't he get out of this, old man? gimme $10," said the One John.

The drunks passed down the line. Crutchfield had one of his easy days, and many were those who pushed past.

STOP A "RINGER" AT RACE TRACK

Stewards Prevent Cataract From Starting Because He Was Unidentified.

OWNED BY VIRGINIA BANKER?

Unknown Horse in Custody of Detectives Until Thoroughly Inspected.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, October 31.—Suspecting that another Fiddler case was contemplated unless they intervened, the stewards of the Jamaica race track quietly bided their time yesterday until the horse Cataract was brought into the paddock to run in the last race, which was for maidens, the kind in which "ringers" are usually started. The officials then informed the negro trainer in charge of Cataract that they would not permit the animal to run, giving as a reason that he was not registered as required, with the registrar of the Jockey Club, although in the stud book there is registered such a name as Cataract, with the same pedigree as that given on yesterday's programme by Niagara out of Charlotte. After a photograph had been taken of the horse and of the trainer the latter was brought before the stewards and questioned. The horse was entered in the name of M. L. Mitchell, well known on the local turf, Mitchell said that he was managing him for a banker in Virginia.

Under instructions from Robert Pinkerton the horse was taken in charge by several of his men, placed in a stable to be washed and inspected for evidences of dye, for some horsemen thought they saw bungling attempts to discolor or alter the natural blaze of white which marks the forehead. In other respects he is without marks—a bay with black points.

Last February a well known performer on the San Francisco tracks disappeared, having been stolen out of his owner's stable. This horse, Treckman, by St. Walter out of Loma, ran all last year in the name of J. A. Weinberg, with his trainer, J. J. McCafferty, could readily identify the alleged ringer of yesterday if, as declared, it was really Treckman. These two horsemen will today inspect the animal, which was entered on yesterday's card as a five-year-old, whereas the real Treckman is a four-year-old. The plan pursued by men who manage a "ringer" is to enter him below his real age, in order to get the benefit of light weight.

If Cataract proves to be really Treckman he would be just the sort to run in a maiden race with a reasonably good chance of winning, because he was a somewhat frequent winner in 1904. The negro in charge of the horse, however, said that Cataract was a good horse, though not a "ringer," and that he had worked one mile in 1:41, which, if true, would have given him a splendid chance to win yesterday's race.

Whether a fortune would have been won by Cataract if he had started and finished first is problematical. Too many bettors probably had heard his name mentioned during the day to make it a sure thing that long odds would be laid against him. An unknown horse is always more or less under suspicion.

Horse Is Identified.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, October 31.—The horse Cataract, which was withdrawn from the race track to-day, was positively identified as the Jamaica track to-day by J. J. McCafferty, as the horse Treckman. Treckman was stolen from the Oaklawn, Ark., track last February and has never appeared until yesterday, when he was entered under the name of Cataract. The horse was painted on the head and neck with white paint, and several horsemen identified him. Treckman was entered in the sixth race as a five-year-old maiden. A big killing was planned with his aid, and he worked one mile in 1:41, and the field which he was to meet was of a very ordinary kind, the race being for maidens three years old and upward.

Two Favorites Win.

Diamond, carrying top weight, 115 pounds, to-day won the seventh Stakes by half a length from the favorite, Monet, with Fusian third. Two favorites won. Summaries:

First race—Brush Up (2 to 1) second; Emory (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:13.

Second race—mile and a sixteenth—Jack Young (6 to 1) first, Hippocrates (4 to 1) second, Athlete (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:48.

Third race—mile and a furlong—Miss Crawford (2 to 1) first, Alvin (4 to 1) second, Novena (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:53 1/2.

Fourth race—two furlongs—six furlongs—Diamond (11 to 8) first, Monet (3 to 5) second, Fusian (10 to 1) third. Time, 1:13 4/5.

Fifth race—mile and a sixteenth—Lord Badge (11 to 10) first, Consuelo II. (20 to 1) second, Gold Flour (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:44 4/5.

Sixth race—five and a half furlongs—Cousin Kate (12 to 1) first, Iolanda (10 to 1) second, Helen Porton (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:08.

Ten Pin Match.

In a match game of ten pins between the Hanovers and the Regals a few nights ago, the Hanovers won with a score of 100 to 0. The Hanovers, against Meyers, Williams, and Stederson, the Regals, won with 33 points to the good.

Thousands Proclaim ELIXIR BABEK

Here is indisputable evidence that Elixir Babek cures malaria after physicians fail:

Washington, D. C., May 8, 1900.

Kloveski & Co., Dear Sirs:—Having suffered several weeks under doctor's care for Malaria fever, I was recommended to get a bottle of "Elixir Babek," and after taking two bottles I was completely cured. I also have given "Babek" to my colored man, and before they had taken a bottle they were relieved.

Respectfully yours,

T. A. R. TAPP.

James Creek Canal, 1st & M. S. W.

Sirs:—I can say that "Elixir Babek" has cured me of Chills and Malaria contracted while in Cuba. Have suffered for a year and now cured.

Lieut. W. C. OLIVER, Marlborough, Md.

Fifty cents per bottle. At all druggists. Beware of "Jussus good."

STOP A "RINGER" AT RACE TRACK

Stewards Prevent Cataract From Starting Because He Was Unidentified.

OWNED BY VIRGINIA BANKER?

Unknown Horse in Custody of Detectives Until Thoroughly Inspected.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, October 31.—Suspecting that another Fiddler case was contemplated unless they intervened, the stewards of the Jamaica race track quietly bided their time yesterday until the horse Cataract was brought into the paddock to run in the last race, which was for maidens, the kind in which "ringers" are usually started. The officials then informed the negro trainer in charge of Cataract that they would not permit the animal to run, giving as a reason that he was not registered as required, with the registrar of the Jockey Club, although in the stud book there is registered such a name as Cataract, with the same pedigree as that given on yesterday's programme by Niagara out of Charlotte. After a photograph had been taken of the horse and of the trainer the latter was brought before the stewards and questioned. The horse was entered in the name of M. L. Mitchell, well known on the local turf, Mitchell said that he was managing him for a banker in Virginia.

Under instructions from Robert Pinkerton the horse was taken in charge by several of his men, placed in a stable to be washed and inspected for evidences of dye, for some horsemen thought they saw bungling attempts to discolor or alter the natural blaze of white which marks the forehead. In other respects he is without marks—a bay with black points.

Last February a well known performer on the San Francisco tracks disappeared, having been stolen out of his owner's stable. This horse, Treckman, by St. Walter out of Loma, ran all last year in the name of J. A. Weinberg, with his trainer, J. J. McCafferty, could readily identify the alleged ringer of yesterday if, as declared, it was really Treckman. These two horsemen will today inspect the animal, which was entered on yesterday's card as a five-year-old, whereas the real Treckman is a four-year-old. The plan pursued by men who manage a "ringer" is to enter him below his real age, in order to get the benefit of light weight.

If Cataract proves to be really Treckman he would be just the sort to run in a maiden race with a reasonably good chance of winning, because he was a somewhat frequent winner in 1904. The negro in charge of the horse, however, said that Cataract was a good horse, though not a "ringer," and that he had worked one mile in 1:41, which, if true, would have given him a splendid chance to win yesterday's race.

Whether a fortune would have been won by Cataract if he had started and finished first is problematical. Too many bettors probably had heard his name mentioned during the day to make it a sure thing that long odds would be laid against him. An unknown horse is always more or less under suspicion.

Horse Is Identified.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, October 31.—The horse Cataract, which was withdrawn from the race track to-day, was positively identified as the Jamaica track to-day by J. J. McCafferty, as the horse Treckman. Treckman was stolen from the Oaklawn, Ark., track last February and has never appeared until yesterday, when he was entered under the name of Cataract. The horse was painted on the head and neck with white paint, and several horsemen identified him. Treckman was entered in the sixth race as a five-year-old maiden. A big killing was planned with his aid, and he worked one mile in 1:41, and the field which he was to meet was of a very ordinary kind, the race being for maidens three years old and upward.

Two Favorites Win.

Diamond, carrying top weight, 115 pounds, to-day won the seventh Stakes by half a length from the favorite, Monet, with Fusian third. Two favorites won. Summaries:

First race—Brush Up (2 to 1) second; Emory (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:13.

Second race—mile and a sixteenth—Jack Young (6 to 1) first, Hippocrates (4 to 1) second, Athlete (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:48.

Third race—mile and a furlong—Miss Crawford (2 to 1) first, Alvin (4 to 1) second, Novena (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:53 1/2.

Fourth race—two furlongs—six furlongs—Diamond (11 to 8) first, Monet (3 to 5) second, Fusian (10 to 1) third. Time, 1:13 4/5.

Fifth race—mile and a sixteenth—Lord Badge (11 to 10) first, Consuelo II. (20 to 1) second, Gold Flour (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:44 4/5.

Sixth race—five and a half furlongs—Cousin Kate (12 to 1) first, Iolanda (10 to 1) second, Helen Porton (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:08.

Ten Pin Match.

In a match game of ten pins between the Hanovers and the Regals a few nights ago, the Hanovers won with a score of 100 to 0. The Hanovers, against Meyers, Williams, and Stederson, the Regals, won with 33 points to the good.

Thousands Proclaim ELIXIR BABEK

Here is indisputable evidence that Elixir Babek cures malaria after physicians fail:

Washington, D. C., May 8, 1900.

Kloveski & Co., Dear Sirs:—Having suffered several weeks under doctor's care for Malaria fever, I was recommended to get a bottle of "Elixir Babek," and after taking two bottles I was completely cured. I also have given "Babek" to my colored man, and before they had taken a bottle they were relieved.

Respectfully yours,

T. A. R. TAPP.

James Creek Canal, 1st & M. S. W.

Sirs:—I can say that "Elixir Babek" has cured me of Chills and Malaria contracted while in Cuba. Have suffered for a year and now cured.

Lieut. W. C. OLIVER, Marlborough, Md.

Fifty cents per bottle. At all druggists. Beware of "Jussus good."

STOP A "RINGER" AT RACE TRACK

Stewards Prevent Cataract From Starting Because He Was Unidentified.

OWNED BY VIRGINIA BANKER?

Unknown Horse in Custody of Detectives Until Thoroughly Inspected.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, October 31.—Suspecting that another Fiddler case was contemplated unless they intervened, the stewards of the Jamaica race track quietly bided their time yesterday until the horse Cataract was brought into the paddock to run in the last race, which was for maidens, the kind in which "ringers" are usually started. The officials then informed the negro trainer in charge of Cataract that they would not permit the animal to run, giving as a reason that he was not registered as required, with the registrar of the Jockey Club, although in the stud book there is registered such a name as Cataract, with the same pedigree as that given on yesterday's programme by Niagara out of Charlotte. After a photograph had been taken of the horse and of the trainer the latter was brought before the stewards and questioned. The horse was entered in the name of M. L. Mitchell, well known on the local turf, Mitchell said that he was managing him for a banker in Virginia.

Under instructions from Robert Pinkerton the horse was taken in charge by several of his men, placed in a stable to be washed and inspected for evidences of dye, for some horsemen thought they saw bungling attempts to discolor or alter the natural blaze of white which marks the forehead. In other respects he is without marks—a bay with black points.

Last February a well known performer on the San Francisco tracks disappeared, having been stolen out of his owner's stable. This horse, Treckman, by St. Walter out of Loma, ran all last year in the name of J. A. Weinberg, with his trainer, J. J. McCafferty, could readily identify the alleged ringer of yesterday if, as declared, it was really Treckman. These two horsemen will today inspect the animal, which was entered on yesterday's card as a five-year-old, whereas the real Treckman is a four-year-old. The plan pursued by men who manage a "ringer" is to enter him below his real age, in order to get the benefit of light weight.

If Cataract proves to be really Treckman he would be just the sort to run in a maiden race with a reasonably good chance of winning, because he was a somewhat frequent winner in 1904. The negro in charge of the horse, however, said that Cataract was a good horse, though not a "ringer," and that he had worked one mile in 1:41, which, if true, would have given him a splendid chance to win yesterday's race.

Whether a fortune would have been won by Cataract if he had started and finished first is problematical. Too many bettors probably had heard his name mentioned during the day to make it a sure thing that long odds would be laid against him. An unknown horse is always more or less under suspicion.

Horse Is Identified.

Two Favorites Win.

Ten Pin Match.

Thousands Proclaim ELIXIR BABEK

STOP A "RINGER" AT RACE TRACK

OWNED BY VIRGINIA BANKER?

Unknown Horse in Custody of Detectives Until Thoroughly Inspected.

STOP A "RINGER" AT RACE TRACK